Item 4 Other Business Activities

Registered Representative of Private Client Services, LLC. Mr. Materetsky is a registered representative of Private Client Services, LLC ("PCS"), an SEC Registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Clients may choose to engage Mr. Materetsky in his individual capacity as a registered representative of PCS, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Materetsky that a client purchase a securities commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from Mr. Materetsky. Clients are reminded that they may purchase investment products recommended by Mr. Materetsky through other, non-affiliated broker dealers. Materetsky Financial Group's Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Commissions: In the event the client chooses to purchase investment products through PCS, brokerage commissions will be charged by PCS to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions shall be paid by PCS to Mr. Materetsky. The brokerage commissions charged by PCS may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. The securities commission business conducted by Mr. Materetsky is separate and apart from Materetsky Financial Group's investment management services discussed in its Brochure.

Licensed Insurance Agent. Mr. Materetsky, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Materetsky to purchase insurance products on a commission basis.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Materetsky that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Materetsky. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Materetsky through other, non-affiliated insurance agents. Materetsky Financial Group's Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

As an owner of the Materetsky Financial Group, Mr. Materetsky's compensation is indirectly contingent on the number of clients he and other advisers refer to the firm, the performance of client accounts, and the addition of money to current client accounts.

Item 6 Supervision

Materetsky Financial Group provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with its policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of Materetsky Financial Group's Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the supervision requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Act"). Materetsky Financial Group's Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, is primarily responsible for the implementation of its policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of its supervised persons. Should an employee, independent contractor, investment adviser representative, or promoter of Materetsky Financial Group have any questions regarding the applicability/relevance of the Act, the Rules thereunder, any section thereof, or any section of the policies and procedures, he/she should address those questions with the Chief Compliance Officer. Should a client have any questions regarding Materetsky Financial Group's supervision or compliance practices, please contact Mr. Materetsky at 561-735-9227.

- Royal Alliance Associates, Inc., Investment Adviser Representative, 9/2003 - 6/2018
- Royal Alliance Associates, Inc., Registered Representative, 7/1996 - 6/2018

Certifications: CFP® professional

Ira Materetsky is certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). Therefore, he may refer to himself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and he may use these and CFP Board's other certification marks (the "CFP Board Certification Marks"). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.cfp.net.

CFP® professionals have met CFP Board's high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Earn a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials.
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual's ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct ("Code and Standards"), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board’s Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional’s services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct (“Code and Standards”), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board’s Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional’s services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Item 3 Disciplinary Information

Form ADV Part 2B requires disclosure of certain criminal or civil actions, administrative proceedings, and self-regulatory organization proceedings, as well as certain other proceedings related to suspension or revocation of a professional attainment, designation, or license. Michael Wright has no required disclosures under this item.

Item 4 Other Business Activities

Registered Representative of Private Client Services, LLC. Mr. Wright is a registered representative of Private Client Services, LLC (“PCS”), an SEC Registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Clients may choose to engage Mr. Wright in his individual capacity as a registered representative of PCS, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Wright that a client purchase a securities commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client’s need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from Mr. Wright. Clients are reminded that they may purchase investment products recommended by Mr. Wright through other, non-affiliated broker dealers. Materetsky Financial Group’s Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Commissions: In the event the client chooses to purchase investment products through PCS, brokerage commissions will be charged by PCS to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions shall be paid by PCS to Mr. Wright. The brokerage commissions charged by PCS may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. The securities commission business conducted by Mr. Wright is separate and apart from Materetsky Financial Group’s investment management services discussed in its Brochure.

Licensed Insurance Agent. Mr. Wright, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and may recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Wright to purchase insurance products on a commission basis.

Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Wright that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client’s need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Wright. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Wright through other, non-affiliated insurance agents. Materetsky Financial Group's Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, remains available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

Mr. Wright's annual compensation is based, in part, on the amount of assets under management and the number of clients that Mr. Wright introduces to Materetsky Financial Group. Accordingly, Mr. Wright has a conflict of interest for recommending the firm to clients for investment advisory services, as the recommendation could be made on the basis of compensation to be received, rather than on a client or prospective client's best interests.

Item 6 Supervision

Materetsky Financial Group provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with its policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of Materetsky Financial Group's Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the supervision requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (the "Act"). Materetsky Financial Group's Chief Compliance Officer, Ira Materetsky, is primarily responsible for the implementation of its policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of its supervised persons. Should an employee, independent contractor, investment adviser representative, or promoter of Materetsky Financial Group have any questions regarding the applicability/relevance of the Act, the Rules thereunder, any section thereof, or any section of the policies and procedures, he/she should address those questions with the Chief Compliance Officer. Should a client have any questions regarding Materetsky Financial Group's supervision or compliance practices, please contact Mr. Materetsky at 561-735-9227.
